

PIRATES & EXPLORERS (2-5 Year Old Little Lads)

MONDAY

Craft:

Paper Plate Pirate

(By DLTK)

(I love this craft because everything you need are items you already have in your arts and crafts supplies. You can also choose to print the template, cut the pieces out and let your little one glue them on!)

Printable:

Pirate Cutting Practice

(By 3 Boys And A Dog)

Quiet Activities:

*Free art time: Paper with Pirate stickers (or even fish, boat or shiny "treasure" stickers)

What to read:

*Any book you have about Pirates
*How I Became a Pirate

What to watch:

*Jake & The Neverland Pirates

TUESDAY

Fun with Food:

Rice Krispies Pirate Treasure

Chest

(By Crunch Creamy Sweet)

(I love this recipe because there is limited cooking, your little one can help measure and stir and you can get creative with how you and your kids fill the chest with treasure!)

Other fun foods:

- *Breakfast: Captain Crunch
- *Snack: Pirates Booty
- *Lunch: Pirate ship Hot dogs (simply cook like normal and add these pirate flags with lollipop sticks or skewers)

Printable:

Pirate Number Puzzles

(By Modern Preschool)

Quiet Activities:

*Sensory Bin: Ocean water beads with pirate figures

What to read:

*Pirates Love Underpants
*Berenstain Bears Pirate Adventure

WEDNESDAY

Fieldtrip:

In person:

*Head to any body of water near you (a lake, pond or the ocean all work) with binoculars and a compass and pretend to be pirates orienting the seas from the shore

Virtual "Fieldtrip":

- *Virtual Tour of the SS Great Britain
- *Central Caribbean Marine Institute "Reefs Go Live"

Printable:

P is for Pirate

(By Twisty Noodle)

Quiet Activities:

*Sensory Bin: Play-dough with pirate figures or buried treasure

What to read:

*The Pirates Next Door
*Are Pirates Polite

What to watch:

*Treasure Hunt with The Pirates \(Rob the Robot\)

THURSDAY

Activity:

Pirate Dress Up:

*Dig through your dress up clothes, your donation pile and your old costume jewelry to create your best pirate costume

*Add some Temporary Tattoos

*Make a simple Pirate Hook

from a disposable cup and aluminum foil

*Make a rolled newspaper pirate sword to finalize the look for your little buccaneer

* Play pirate music (like "A Sailor Went to Sea") for the big reveal

Printable:

Pirate Coloring Page

Quiet Activities:

*Free art time: Empty paper towel tube and markers or finger paints to create a pirate telescope

What to read:

*Shiver Me Letters, A Pirate ABC

*Pete The Cat & The Treasure Map

FRIDAY

Move Your Body Activity:

Walk the Plank Matey

(I love this because you can make this as simple or creative as you want! Basically you need something to call the plank and some "water" for the kids to practice their balance and walk over)

And/Or

Pirate Freeze Dance

Wearing their pirate dress up your little one can dance to some fun music. Each time you hit pause your little pirate has to show off their best pirate pose.

Printable:

Color & Cut Out Pirate Hat

(By Woo! Jr)

What to read:

*Pirate Boy
*Goodnight Pirate

Friday Night Movie Picks:

*Peter Pan: Return to Neverland
*The Pirate Fairy
